

SPRINGFIELD GLOBE & GLOBE REPUBLIC.

THE SPRINGFIELD GLOBE, Vol. V, No. 314.
THE SPRINGFIELD GLOBE REPUBLIC, Vol. XXXI, No. 200.

SPRINGFIELD, O., WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 7, 1885.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

OWEN BROTHERS

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 7, 1885.

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL NINE O'CLOCK.

On account of the great increase of evening trade we shall, until further notice, extend the closing hour to nine o'clock.

TOP COATS.

You can buy garments that look like our make at perhaps near our asking price. You'll be told they're exactly like them. They are not. The coats are no more alike than the dealing. We call especial attention to our wear-resisting, storm-excluding, heat-retaining, money-saving great coats, $8. We whisper this early in the season, that you may be on your guard against the high priced coat dealing element, and be prepared to meet them with facts and figures from the manufacturers of these garments direct.

For $2.50, for 3.00, for 4.00 and for 5.00 in either gray or black, the coats are here to be seen and bought. A stock of overcoats running up into the thousands is at your disposal. Look at the prices as marked on each and every garment in plain figures; examine materials, workmanship and finish thoroughly. Stubborn facts are piled up in those garments.

Undressed kid mittens and gloves for men; just made, just here, just marked. We sell a hundred kinds of gloves and mittens, but these are the novelty of this season, $2.50 for 1.75.

Too early to speak of fur caps for boys as well as for men. Of course there'll be no sale for these goods or ear muffs for some time yet.

Late style hats are ready. It is by standing between you and the maker that we have come to sell four-fifths of all the hats worn in and about Springfield.

OWEN BROTHERS
Springfield's Only One Price Clothiers.

BLACK'S OPERA HOUSE.
Friday and Saturday Matinee
OCTOBER 9 and 10, 1885.
The Latest Laughing Success,
Lester & Williams.

Presenting a New Tidal Wave of Merriment,
A PARLOR MATCH!
By CHAS. H. HOYT, Author of "Bunch of Keys," "A Rag Baby," "A Tin Soldier," etc.

The Original Innocent Kidd
JENNIE YEAMANS,
So Funny You Can't Describe It.

Admission, 25, 50 and 75 Cents.
Seats at Pierce's
Matinee Price, 50 and 25 Cents.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
ONE NIGHT ONLY.
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7th.
Special engagement of the charming and incomparable

"LOTTA,"
America's Gifted Comedienne, supported by her own

COMEDY COMPANY.
In her latest and greatest success,

"M'LE NITOUCHÉ"
Music by Herve, and in which Miss Lotta will appear in 13 characters, Druse De Flaving, "Nitouché," a Japanese Princess, and as a Drummer Boy.

Sale of seats now open at Carver's.

URBANA'S HORROR.

A WIFE DELIBERATELY POISONS HER BABY AND HERSELF.

The Husband, Returning From Work, Finds his Happy Home a Scene of Desolation and Death—Details of the Horrible Affair.

Special to the Globe-Republic.

URBANA, O., Oct. 7.—One of the saddest cases of suicide ever occurring in Urbana took place here last night. Mrs. McCusky, a well-known young man living on Miami street, had an interesting family consisting of a wife, aged about twenty-one years, and a very little child, about eighteen months old, which took the prize for beauty at the last Champaign county fair. Mr. McCusky, living some distance from the town where he is employed, does not always go home to supper. Yesterday noon after dinner he bid them the usual good bye, and did not return until about quarter to twelve o'clock. He was startled to find his wife and baby at death's door. They were both unconscious. The child was lying on its mother's left arm, and by her side was a small bottle, with a photograph and a letter to him. Mrs. McCusky, after dressing herself and children in their best clothes (the child in the dress it wore when awarded the beauty prize) gave the child and herself a heavy dose of morphine and then calmly laid down to die. No reason is assigned for the act. No family trouble could have been the cause as her family affairs and transactions were of a happy nature. The husband is almost crazy with grief.

SINGULAR AFFAIR.

A Remarkable Occurrence in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The Daily News says: The strange spectacle of an excited young man jamming a handful of hair into his overcoat pocket attracted a crowd in front of 521 Wells street a recent evening. The hair had been clipped from the head of Mrs. Lena Benz, who lives in the three front rooms on the first floor of the house of that number. The young man was Thomas V. Lynch, Jr., of the firm of Thomas Lynch & Co., the distilling firm of H. H. Shults & Co. With him were his brothers John and James. The young men were faintly attired, and evidently not accustomed to being objects of curiosity for such a miscellaneous assembly as gathered there.

"We did it to show her that she could not defame our dear mother's name without our consent," said one of the young men. "This woman and father have entered into a conspiracy to cover their own acts by blackening mother's name."

In the evening alluded to it became known to the sons that their father was in company with Mrs. Benz. Accompanied by a detective they drove to her residence. One of them knocked at the side door and shouted: "The distillery's on fire!"

The door was hastily opened, and the four men rushed into an outer room. Mrs. Benz was seized by two of the sons and held in a chair while the third searched her long, brown tresses with a pair of scissors. Thomas Lynch, Sr., it is said, was then hurried into a back room, and driven to his residence on LaSalle avenue.

Warrants were issued for the arrest of the three sons Saturday, and they gave bail for their appearance before Justice Kersten Thursday afternoon. James Lynch, who will not be a dead wife until Nov. 24, was as good as a dead man and mother as ever lived. We took the course we did in revenge for the stories father and the women had circulated about her. We do not care who marries or what he does with his money. If we did, we would not have done what we did for her now declares that we have won her deadly enemy."

Mrs. Benz is the divorced wife of a man named Preston, driver of a compressed yeast wagon. She is a tall, slender brunette, passably good-looking. She lives alone with a young woman as her servant, and the neighbors have nothing to say against her character. Thomas Lynch, Sr., is wealthy and is well known in business circles. He is an ex-actor and an influential citizen. His sons are well educated, energetic and capable business men, and move in the best society of Chicago. John has accumulated a competence on the board of trade, and the other two sons express their ability to get along without their father's assistance.

Meeting of the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—A meeting of the cabinet was held today, at which all the members were present except Secretary Whitney. Among the questions considered was the Spanish commercial treaty and several appointments under the treasury, interior and justice departments.

Cotton Freight Tariffs Advanced.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—At a meeting of the standing committee of the trunk lines today the tariff on cotton between St. Louis and New York was fixed at 30 cents. This is an advance.

TODAY'S NEWS.

Geneta has sailed for England.

Ex-Governor Talbot, of Massachusetts, is due.

The U. S. Court opened in the new Government Building, Cincinnati.

Mary Anderson has arrived, and had a great reception in New York Harbor.

Rev. Dewitt C. Talmage is to lecture at Music Hall, Cincinnati, October 20.

The Committee of One Hundred will take an active part in the Cincinnati election.

Mrs. Druse has been sentenced to death at Utica, N. Y., for the murder of her husband.

At Hockingport, O., Arthur White, aged six, accidentally shot his brother, aged five.

The explosion of Flood Rock, Hell Gate, has been postponed until Saturday, Oct. 10, at 11 a. m., high tide.

King Mallico, of the Samoan islands has asked the protection of the U. S. government against German annexation.

A congress of socialists is being held in Cincinnati. The second day was devoted to the eight-hour labor problem.

Judge Alfonso Taft has accepted the position of chairman for Judge Foraker at the Music Hall debate with Governor Hoadly.

David Island dam, which provides for a navigable state of water at all times around Pittsburgh, has been completed and will be formally opened.

Geo. H. Disque, saloon-keeper, Hoboken, surrendered himself, saying he had killed his wife. It proved true—the woman was found dead, her throat cut and seven months' babe doubling in her blood. Insane jealousy.

The Pacific slope Chinamen have undertaken to scatter more widely through the United States, and thus escape persecution. A committee has been appointed to secure employment for a limited number in different sections of the country.

Ex-senator Thurman tried to show, at Toledo, Tuesday night, that there was no blood on the bourbon shirt.

Death of a Child.

The many friends of little Glenn Billow, who have watched with eagerness for news of his recovery, will be pained to learn that he died last night at 11 o'clock. He had been ill with diphtheria for two weeks. He was four years old and was the son of Elmer Billow.

SOME CURIOUS OLD PEOPLE.

Three Aged Hermits of an Ohio Town, and Their Queer Way of Living.

[From Morning Edition.]

DELAVARE, O., Oct. 6.—Near the outskirts of this town, in a small house of two rooms, an eccentric family of three persons lead the lives of hermits. Their names are Benjamin Vaughn, aged 77; Joshua Vaughn, aged 75, and Sarah Vaughn, aged 72. The other evening, shortly before dusk, I journeyed out to the dwelling. The door was opened by Joshua in response to my knock and I was invited into the dingiest room I ever saw inhabited by three white people. The emaciated faces of the three hermits were plainly visible by the light of a bright fire, which was burning in the wide, old-fashioned fireplace. The room was without furniture of any kind, except a heap of bedding in one corner. An old-fashioned crane in the fire-place supported a kettle of ancient pattern, while on the hearth stood an old wooden pot and three cups.

This constituted the entire housekeeping effects of these three strange people. Neither chairs, table, stool or any article of furniture was visible. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson, then quite a lad, came to live with them and looked after their live interests. Over a year ago he was married, and the hermits decided to him their entire property, taking life leases on the land and its products, which they might be assured a living. The recording of the hermits informed me that the last time he saw any of the three, until last summer was 43 years ago, when he was a fifteenth year old. At that time he was a general muster at Delaware. About eighteen years ago a Robinson,